Happenings of a Local and Personal Nature.

The sales Monday were well attended and over $30,000 worth of land was sold, and it all brought good prices.

Frank and Miss Lizzie Alexander, of Pickens county, spent Saturday and Sunday with John L. Smith and family, of Stamp Creek.—[Knoxville Courier.

A meeting of the Twelve Mile Alliance will be held at Mountain Grove church on Saturday the 23d instant. All members are urged to be present as business of importance is to be attended to.

H. Frank Smith, of the Glensy Mountain section, was exhibiting in Pickens Monday as fine a colt as could be found anywhere. It is only 18 months old, weigh 725 pounds and is certainly a beauty.

Several of our friends from various parts of the county called to see us Monday and caused the "devil" to smile when he heard the rattle of the "chime" as they carried away receipts for another year.

A. J. Sentell, who lives on the Garrett place, near Catechee, will get 20 bales of cotton from 17 acres of land. He also made 150 bushels of corn and 35 bushels of wheat, besides other crops on his farm. Who can buy a better crop?

Arrived in Catechee, at Catechee, by J. Alonzo Brown, N. P., Mr. Alonzo Arthur and Miss Bessie Cook, eldest daughter of I. N. Cook, of the Norris section. The happy young couple have the best wishes of their many friends for a long, happy and prosperous life.

Mrs. T. Gossett, of West Greenville, left yesterday for Baltimore to the John Hopkins hospital, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. H. A. Robinson of Pickens. Mrs. Gossett will enter the hospital for treatment.—[Greenville Piedmont.

Married on the 24th ult., at the residence of Mrs. R. C. Wyatt, mother of the bride, Mildred Wyatt, of the Brasby Creek section, to Eugene Bowie, formerly of Honea Path, but now of Pittsburg, Pa., Rev. DuBose performing the ceremony.

In the U. S. court at Greenville the drug net landed the following convictions: Ed Young, 1 month; Sank Hendricks, 3 months and $200 fine; Avery Stewart, 3 months and $100 fine; Walker Stewart, 3 months and $200 fine. They are now in the Pickens jail serving sentence.

J. R. Meece, of Rosman, N. C., is sawing lumber on the Daniel Winchester lands on the head of Nine Times. Mr. Meece brought a good outfit with him across the mountain, coming by way of the Sassafras Gap road. He has the reputation of being the best sawyer in these parts.

J. M. Gautt, who for the past year has been very satisfactorily holding down a job with "The Big Store," leaves Friday for Charlottesville, Va., where he goes to take a job with a contracting company, who has a job of building a reservoir and putting in a system of waterworks in that town. Jim is a splendid fellow, a good workman, and is just suited for the job he has accepted. This position has been open for him for some time, but he has just made up his mind to accept. He will leave his family here for the winter. His many friends hate to see him leave Pickens, but wish for him all kinds of success.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Kennemur and sisters, Misses Carrie and Anna, visited at the home of A. A. Baker, near Pickens, Saturday night.—C. L. Dean, of Atlanta, has had a new residence erected on his plantation, near Pleasant Hill, where a 2 story, 8 room building was burned last spring. Gordon Palmer and wife are occupying the new building.—N. R. Kennemur attended the meeting of the "Odd Fellows" at Newry one night last week.—[Seneca Journal.

Our good friend and staunch standby, John T. Langston, says we shall not want during these hard times. If we can find some others to furnish the meat and meal he will furnish the turnips. Monday he left a few samples at this office of the "Cow-korn" and "Langston's Best" varieties that are the finest we have seen—and they eat well, too. Mr. Langston believes in raising everything he can at home, and he generally does so. John, come again, and bring more turnips.

At the fourth quarterly conference held with the Pickens Methodist church last Saturday, a very satisfactory report was made. While the other churches composing this charge did not pay out, the steward pledged themselves to see that everything was squared up before the meeting of the annual conference in Gaffney in December. This church (Pickens) paid their part of the pastor's salary in full and something like $20 over. This is a splendid showing, not only for this individual church, but for the entire charge, and the pastor, Rev. D. D. Jones, should feel proud that he is on a charge that does what it promises.

Don't overlook the coupon in this paper. Vote it before the next issue of the paper as it may mean five dollars to your friend. Get coupons to us by Tuesday night in order to have them count on this special prize. Next week we will publish the standing of the contestants and the carrier leading in the race will receive $5 00. A like sum will be given the young lady having the largest number of votes. On account of the slump in the price of cotton and the tightness of the money market, thus keeping our friends from paying as promptly and as early as they otherwise would, we will be compelled to extend the time of closing this contest until the 1st of February, 1908.

The Pickens cotton mill has consented to store cotton for its friends and patrons. Under this plan they will take cotton in their warehouse without charge or expense to the farmer, and when ready to sell will pay the market price for it. If, however, the seller is not satisfied with the price he can get his cotton back by paying the mill 15c per month per bale for the actual cost of storage and insurance. With this arrangement the Pickens Bank will carry for awhile at least the notes of its customers who will store with the mill their cotton and deposit with the bank their warehouse receipts for same. This is a most liberal proposition from both the mill and the bank.

Miss Florence Davis, of Liberty, Pickens county, S. C., opened the Mt. Moriah academy on the 28th ult. She is one of the most up-to-date teachers that ever crossed the state line into North Carolina. We understand she will be domiciled at the home of Joe Zachary.—Furman Whitmore and H. P. Roberts are going to put up a large stock of goods in the H. P. Clarke building. Mr. Roberts is a well-known merchant of Pickens county, S. C.—M. H. Henderson and Ebb Moore have returned south. Ebb has rented a farm near Liberty.—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Henderson, of Liberty, S. C., are visiting friends and relatives here this week.—Brevard News.
